PREFACE.

THE documents transferred from the Duchy of Lancaster Office to the Public Record Office in 1868, an Inventory of which is printed as an Appendix to the 30th Report of the Deputy-Keeper of the Records, have since that time been brought into a more systematic arrangement, in the process of which several of the classes have been re-numbered, and the large collections of Miscellaneous Documents described in the Inventory as Class XXV., XXVI., and XXVII. respectively, have been thoroughly examined and classified as far as possible according to the subjects to which they relate.

The present List shews the new arrangement of these Records and specifies the Calendars or Indexes to each class where any such exist.

Detailed Lists are given of certain newly-formed classes as the Ancient Correspondence, Forest Proceedings, and Returns of Knights' Fees, and also of the Miscellanea (classified and unclassified).

This List has been prepared by Mr. M. S. GIUSEPPI, of this Department, under the supervision of Mr. S. R. SCARGILL-BIRD, an Assistant Keeper of the Records.

Deeds L : 3635 documents packed in small envelopes.	D. L. 25
Deeds LL : 106 documents too large to be packed in these envelopes.	26
Deeds LS : 331 documents possessing fine seals and packed in small cardboard boxes.	27

Deeds L. Nos. 1 to 652 and Deeds LS. Nos. 1 to 136 were formerly known as Grants in Boxes A and B. Calendars of the contents of these boxes are printed in the Deputy Keeper's Reports XXXV and XXXVI, and the new numbers of the deeds have been noted in the Search Room copies of these Reports. Deeds L. Nos. 653 to 2044, Deeds LL. Nos. 1 to 7, and Deeds LS. Nos. 137 to 189 comprise those formerly known as Grants in Boxes C to M. Of these there is a MS. Calendar, in which the new numbers have been entered.

Deeds L. Nos. 2045 to 3256 and Deeds LS. 190 to 295 are the originals of deeds entered in the two volumes of the Great Cowcher (D. of L. Misc. Books, Vols. 1 and 2) and a key has been prepared giving the references to them from these volumes.

Deeds L. Nos. 3567 to 3633, Deeds LL. Nos. 51 to 106, and Deeds LS. Nos. 321 to 331 consist chiefly of those documents which were transferred to this class from the various classes of miscellanea formerly existing amongst the Duchy records. A MS. Calendar of them has been prepared.

CARTÆ MISCELLANÆ.

D. L. 36

In addition to the three above mentioned series of Ancient Deeds, there are three volumes entitled "Cartæ Miscellanæ" consisting of deeds and charters, which, having lost their seals, were collected together and bound in volumes. LEASES.

The leases made under the seal of the duchy of Lancaster are for the most part enrolled or entered in books, but in cases where no enrolment can be found, search should be made amongst the bundles of draft leases. The books of Enrolments of Leases are included in the list of Miscellaneous Books, and are divided into three series. Of these the first is a general series for the duchy from Henry VII. to 13 Charles I. A calendar to this series will be found in the volume entitled “Index to Leases from Hen. 8th to Geo. 2nd,” which contains also a calendar to the bundles of draft leases from James I. to George II. The remaining two series are those of the books kept by the auditors of the North and South parts of the duchy respectively, and cover the period from the reign of Henry VII. to the commencing years of that of George III. Indices or tables of the contents of the volumes in these series are generally to be found inserted in their respective volumes.

MAPS AND PLANS.

The maps and plans preserved amongst the records of the Duchy of Lancaster consist principally of those made in elucidation of the claims of parties in disputes pending in the Court of the Duchy Chamber. In the few cases in which a date appears on the map, a note of it is given in the following list. But the dates of the remaining ones can generally be ascertained by reference to the returns to the Special Commissions of enquiry or to the decrees and other proceedings in the suits in the course of which the maps would seem to have been prepared.

[a] What is presumably a copy, in a hand of the late seventeenth century, of the volume (together with its list of contents) in question, entitled "Ducatus Comitatusque Palatini Lancastriae.... Illustratio...," said to have been compiled from the records in the Tower of London and at one time among the manuscripts of Sir Thomas Phillipps, bart., is preserved in the Duchy of Lancaster Office. From this it appears that the missing original was a collection made for Sir Thomas Heneage, sometime joint keeper of those records, and from 1590 - 1595, Chancellor of the duchy, and that the surviving list of contents (viz. D.L.42/142) is itself slightly incomplete.

Of these Nos. 1 to 364 embrace the period between the reigns of William II. and Richard II. inclusive, and are calendared in the Thirty-first Report of the Deputy Keeper. Nos. 365 to 427 of the original royal charters extend from the reign of Henry IV. to that of George II. and are calendared in manuscript.

SECURITY BONDS.

These consist for the most part of bonds for the payment of sums of money to the receivers and other accounting officers of the duchy, and are subsidiary to the accounts of these officers.
